20 Ways to help The College of Engineering and Science

1. Encourage a prospective student to visit campus

2. Make an annual gift to the college. Did you know Louisiana Tech’s ranking in publications like U.S. News & World Report are tied to alumni participation?

3. Visit and evaluate the college Web site.

4. Assist with student recruitment in your area.

5. Update your alumni address by calling 318 257 4971.

6. Sign up for the college’s newsletter by emailing cfraser@latech.edu.

7. Attend Homecoming and stop by the college’s tailgating tent.

8. Display your degree to let people know you’re proud of Louisiana Tech.

9. Follow the College and other university groups on Facebook.

10. Take advantage of any matching gifts offered by your employer.

11. Share your story with the university marketing team so they can share it with the world.

12. Visit campus. You might be surprised at the changes.

13. Connect with current students. They can always benefit from the experience and advice of their predecessors.

14. Host a ‘Meet the Dean’ event in your hometown.

15. Read the college’s annual report.

16. After reading the college’s annual report, share it with a friend.

17. Remember the college in your will or estate plan.

18. Take a fellow alumnus to an alumni event in your area.

19. Reconnect with classmates and professors at college events.

20. Help foster partnerships between the college and your company,