

Phase 2: Review of Your Submitted Form

The COES Undergraduate Studies staff will review the form you submitted. Once it has been approved, you will receive:

- a final copy of your advising form via your Tech email and
- a text message to the cellphone number you provided when you have been released to register.

If we have any questions, we will text you via the cellphone number you provided. Please be patient as we process your advising form as we are also working with your fellow Class of 2024 classmates.
